-Sierra Nevada

Mirror Pond Pale Ale

“Cascade hops and more Cascade hops give this tawny colored ale delicious hop-forward aroma and flavor. Pale malt allows the hops to linger, not overpower.”

-Deschutes Brewery

Morning Wood

“This Imperial version of Maple Bacon Coffee Porter is aged in Bourbon barrels for months, lending smoothness to the smoky, salty, rich combo of maple syrup, fresh roasted coffee, and bacon.”

-Funky Buddha

Everett Porter

“This Porter is crafted from American malted barley, English and German roasted malts, American hops, our ale yeast, and water from our well. Decadent in its depth, with a complex backbone of chocolate, coffee, and malty sweetness.”

-Hill Farmstead Brewery

Double Shot

“This one's soft cocoa flavors open up to reveal a richly complex treat. We taste flavors of chocolate cake, ‘coffee candy’, milk chocolate, with heaps of vanilla. A pungent & distinct coffee stout for sure!”

-Tree House Brewing Company

Downtown Brown

“A smooth, full-bodied nut brown ale, lightly hopped with a hint of roasted and crystal malts. This ale is dark in color without the heavy taste of porter or stout.”
